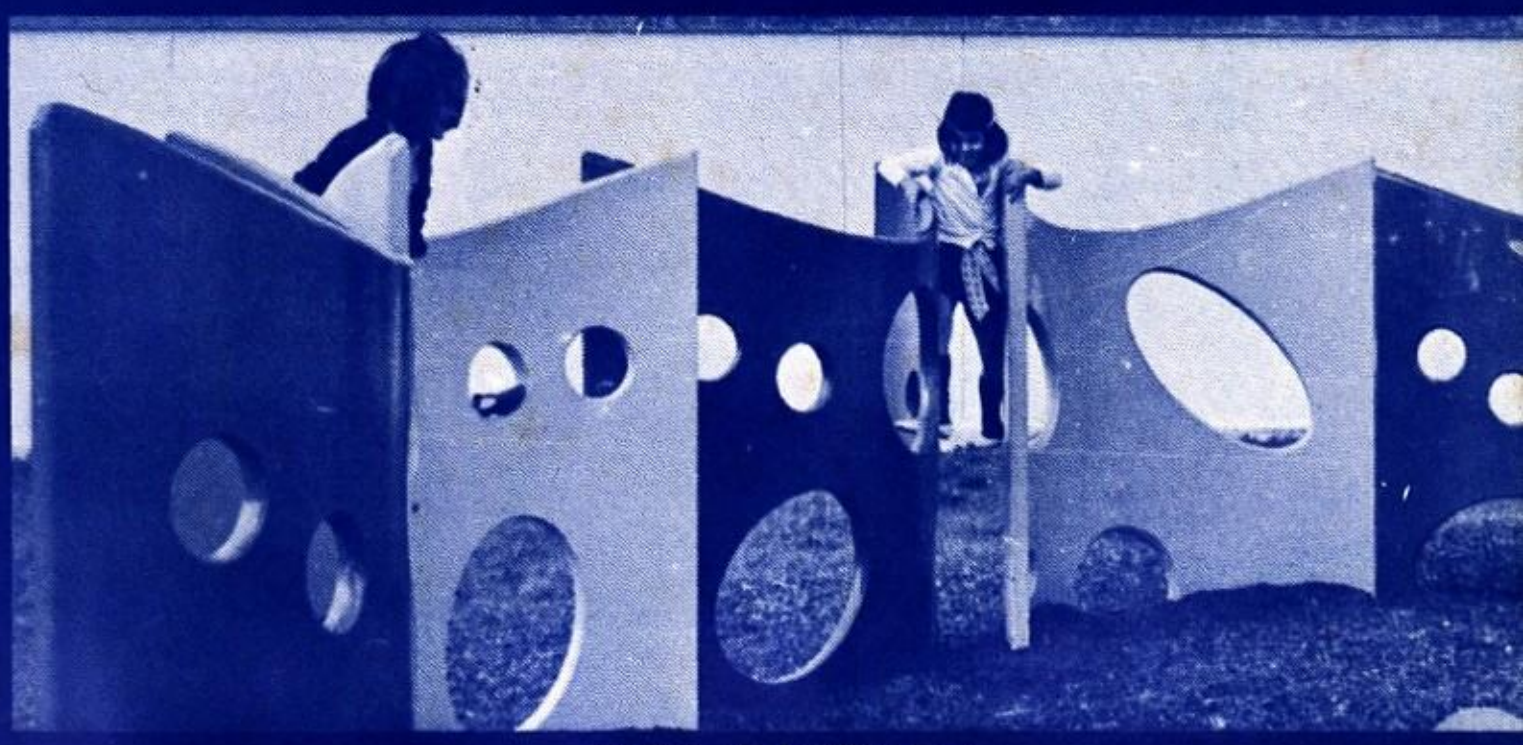
A Time to be Serious

A Time to Remember

A Time to Begin Again



A Time to be Carefree

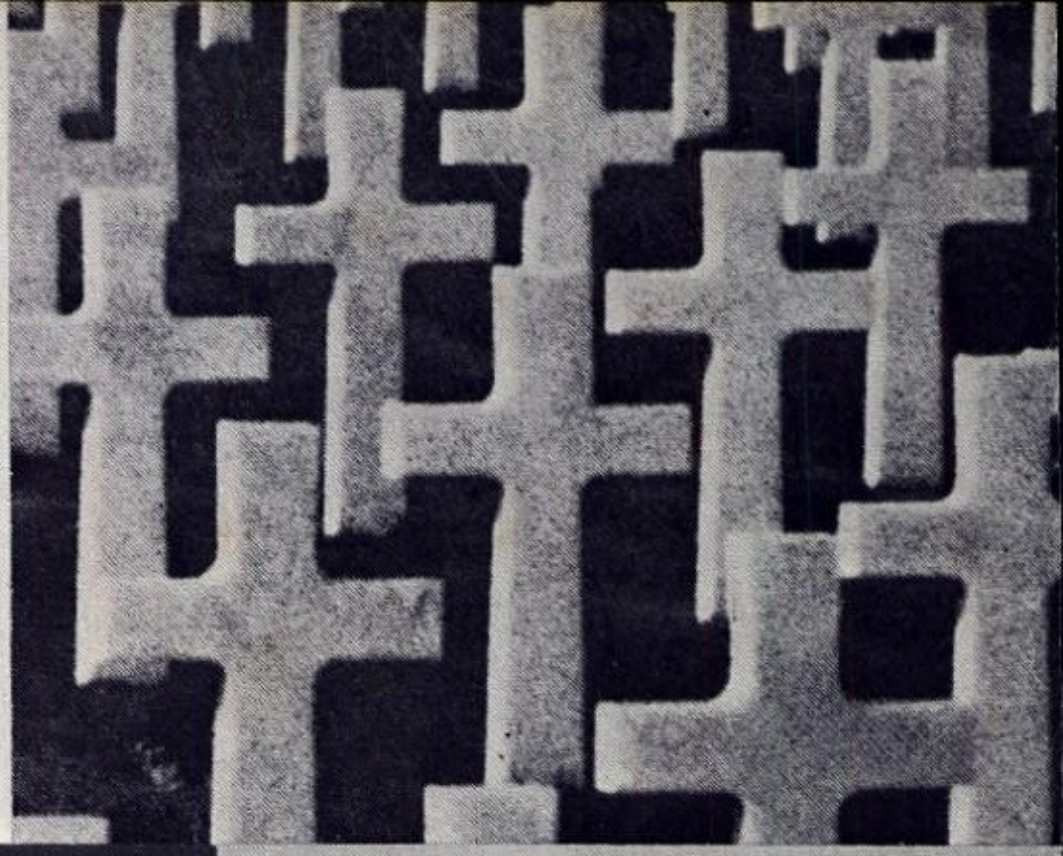
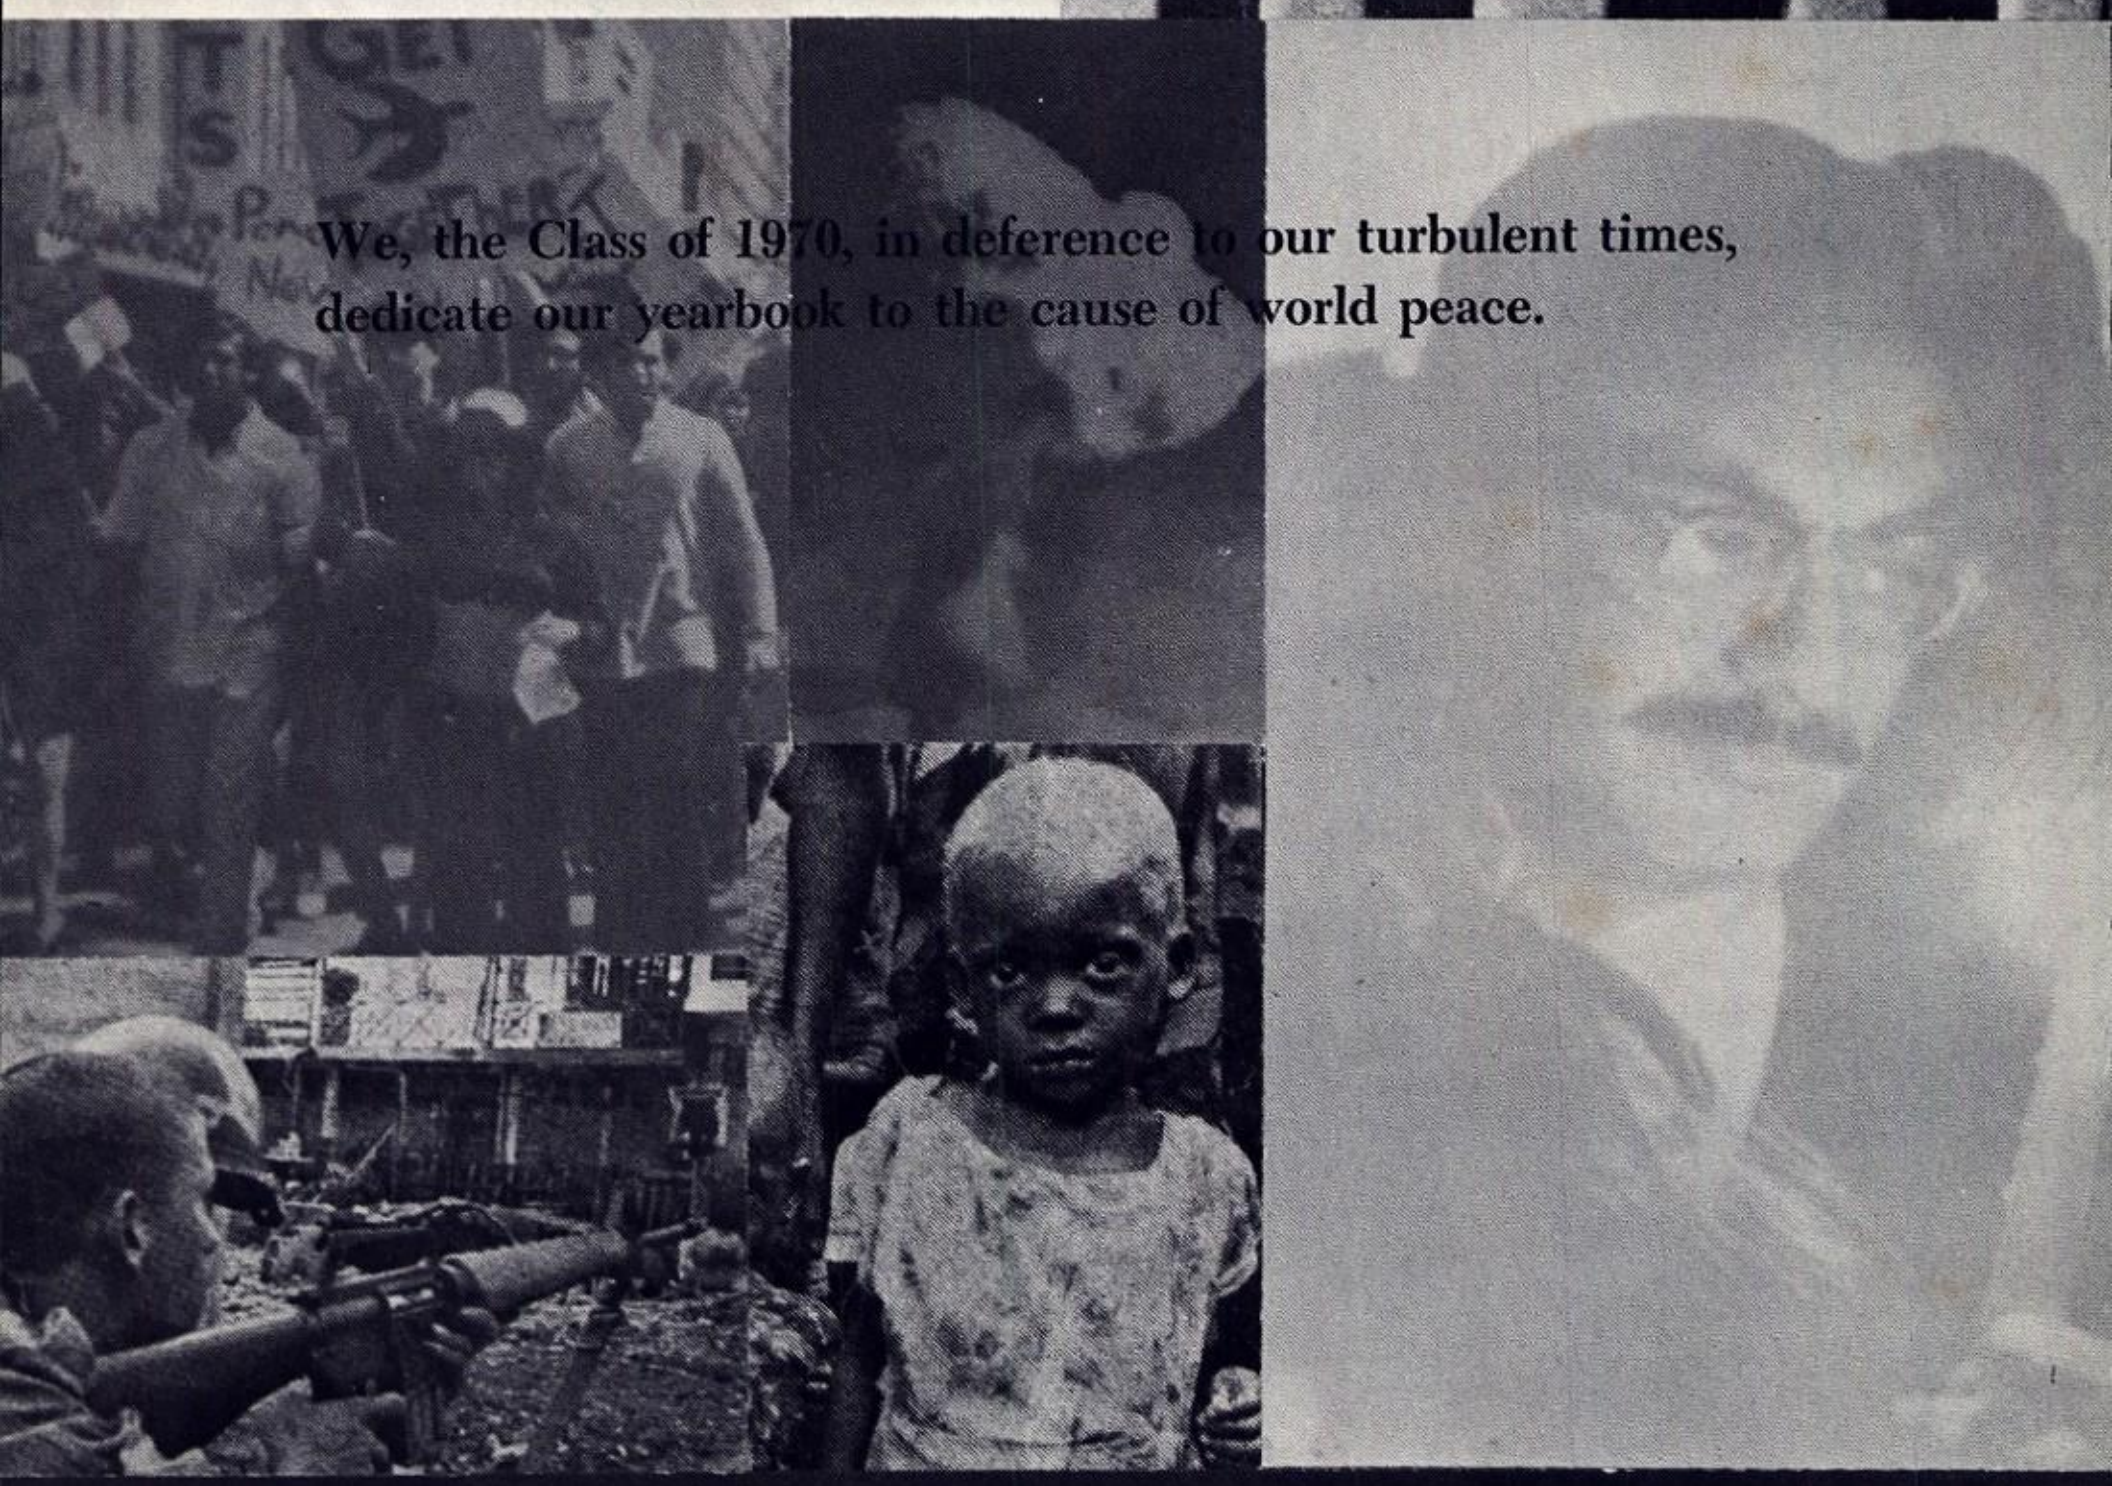
For everything there is a season; and a proper time for every pursuit under heaven.
There is a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to toil, and a time to rest;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.

October 15 is Vietnam Peace Action day.

What will you do that day?





We, the Class of 1970, in deference to our turbulent times, dedicate our yearbook to the cause of world peace.

WORK for PEACE

Dear Members of the Class of 1970:

There is an undertone of sadness in the thought of graduation. Your High School Days are over. Fortified with four years of excellent training, I am confident that you are all prepared for a new phase of life.

No matter what you do or where you go, remember that you will not be carried to success by a chariot of ease. There is only one roadway to success and that is hard, diligent work.

I bid you farewell as students of the Hull Public Schools. May you benefit by every measure of success and happiness in your future vocations and in all your lives.

Sincerely yours,
Richard P. Charlton
Superintendent of Schools

To The Class of 1970:

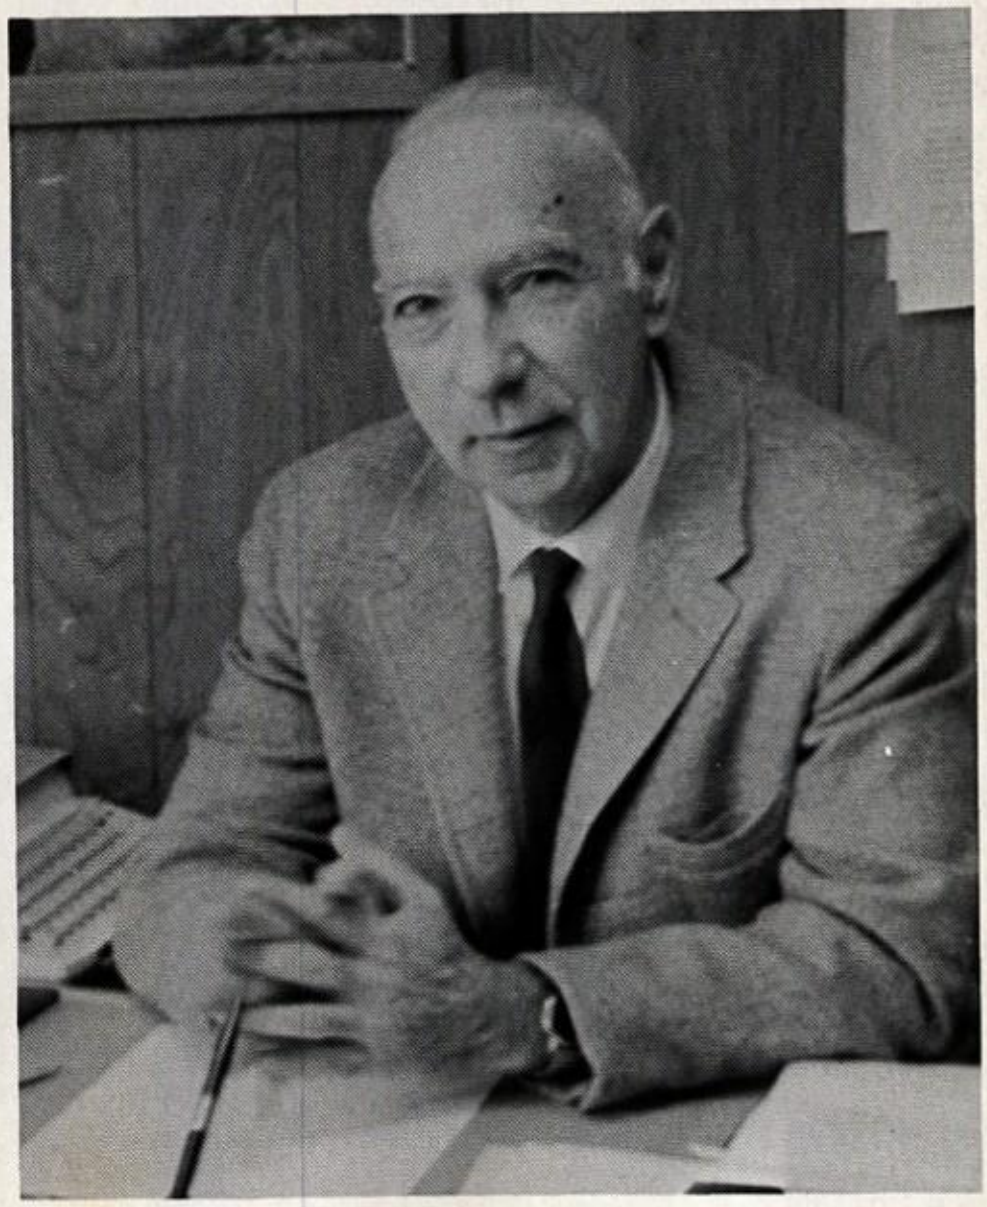
I take pleasure in congratulating the members of the Graduating Class of 1970: indeed next Sunday will be a day of days for you, your parents, and your friends.

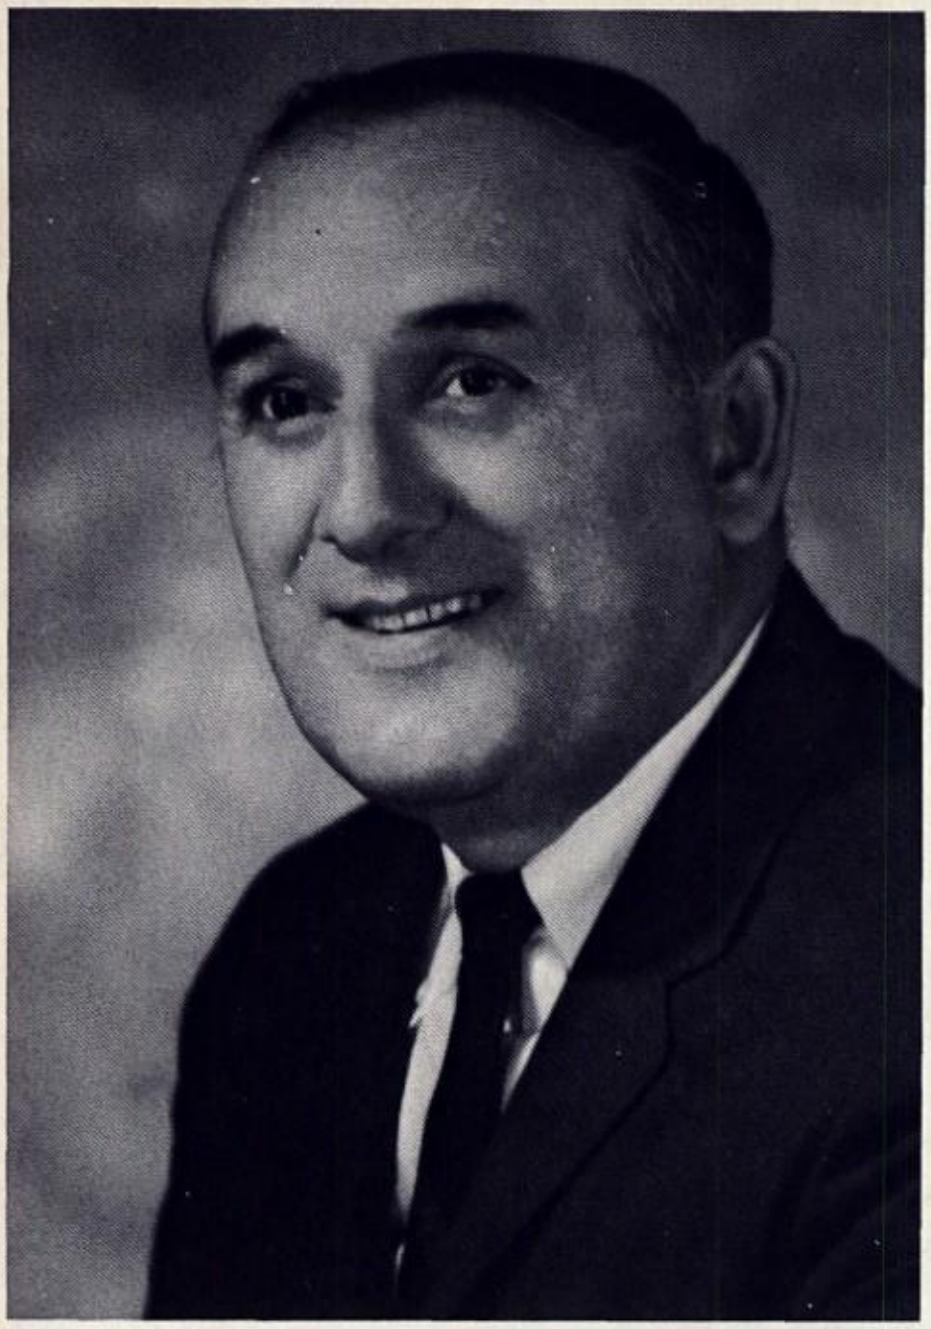
The completion of twelve years of formal education marks a definite turning point in one's lifetime. In fact, the place you have reached is not too much unlike the point at which the old, familiar, well-traveled road meets the new super highway. For from now on one's driving patterns must change. Old habits must be replaced by new ones -- and usually very different ones.

May I urge all to seek out the work that you prefer and to get the type of training and skills that will equip you for the abundant life that lies ahead. Remember that no man travels twice the great highway that leads from darkness unto light.

With very best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,
John M. Osterman
Assistant Superintendent





To the Class of 1970:

"The example of America must be the example not merely of peace because it will not fight, but of peace because peace is the healing and elevating influence of the world, and strife is not. There is such a thing as a man being too proud to fight. There is such a thing as a nation being so right that it does not need to convince others by force that it is right." -- Woodrow Wilson --

Sincerely yours,
Nicholas J. Meleones
Principal

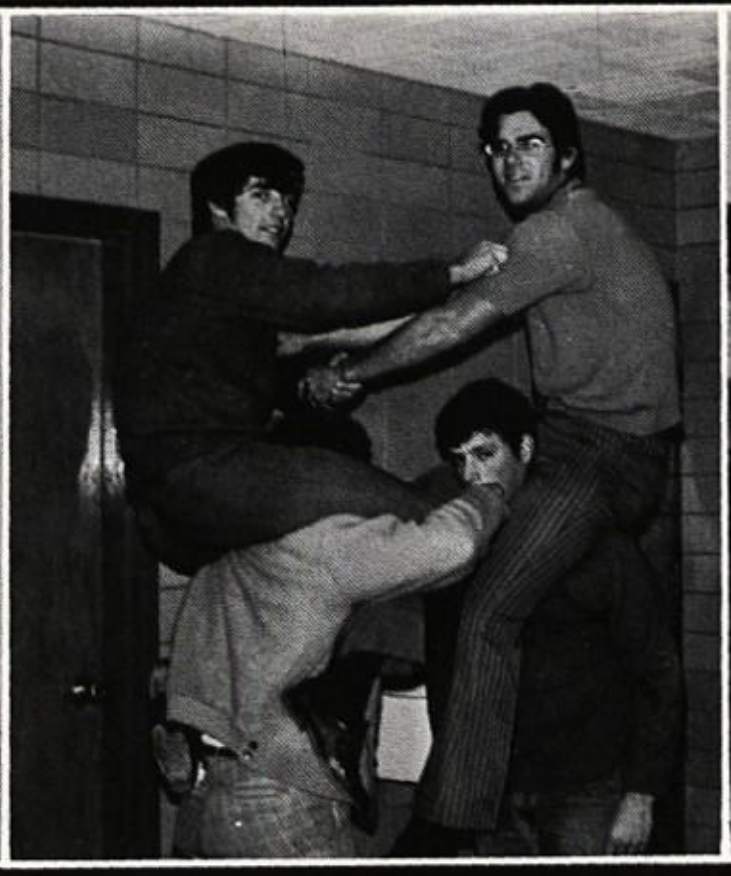
THE INFORMAL

SENIORS



It was the best of times, it was the worst of times;

It was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness;

It was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity;

It was the season of light, it was the season of darkness;

It was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair;

We had everything before us, we had nothing before us . . .

BUILDING #19 SALES CO.

HINGHAM INDUSTRIAL CENTER, RTE. 3A HINGHAM, MASS.

Dear Friend of Building 19,

I just finished a high level discussion (it was really high level —in the bar at the top of the Pru) with a retail expert who cautioned me that I'm bragging about our low prices too much. He claims that in this "affluent society" people are no longer primarily interested in price. "There's plenty of money around" he claimed. "The public wants prestige, service and dignity." (With all this "money around" the guy out-fumbled me when the check came.) Anyway, I promised him I'd try his way and stop making such a big deal out of the fact that we sell merchandise actually below wholesale cost. (That sounds impossible, but it's true. Since we buy bankrupt stocks, firestocks, close-outs, etc., we can sell below wholesale and still make a profit)—but I'm bragging about our bargains again and I'm not supposed to. Forget the fact that you save a fortune by shopping here and think about—:

PRESTIGE—When you buy something from our Elegant Emporium the world knows that YOU PAID CASH! We have no charge accounts, revolving budgets, or hock-your-future plans. Ask any credit manager to place his hand on the Bible and tell you that credit doesn't add a good 5 to 10% to prices. By buying here you tell the neighbors that you've got cash and the good judgment to save it.

SERVICE—All our employees (18 bosses, 2 workers) know that service is the key to a successful company future (and to their keeping their jobs). When I get a complaint about poor service I get violent! If we should ever fail to render prompt, efficient service, let me know and I'll give you an on-the-spot refund. Who else does? What other store REALLY CARES?

DIGNITY—Webster (not Danny, but Herby, his cousin) defines dignity as "self-respecting or noble mein or deportment". Well, if you want to march through this Mad Merchandise Menagerie with your noble mein showing, feel perfectly free to do so (during store hours, please)! No one will bother you, or try to sell you anything. We have neither fawning clerks nor high pressure salesmen. In fact, it's often hard to find someone to take your money. If you have this trouble, just see me. I know where they all hide.

So—OK! I didn't boast about our low prices! I didn't even harp on our money-back guarantee—or tell you why shopping at Building 19 is more fun than shopping at those big, sterile stereotyped stores. I haven't even got room to tell what we sell, except that we sell "everything—almost".

WHY ARE WE ONLY OPEN THREE DAYS A WEEK? We make a good living being open three days, so why work four? We're open Fridays 9:00–9:00, Saturdays 9:00–5:00, and Mondays 9:00-9:00. Of course we do have service and warehouse people on duty the other three days of the week, but we're not open for business. It's more fun to play golf.

Cordially,

Jerry Ellis

Jerry Ellis

P.S. Don't forget our exhausting store hours. We're open Fri. 9:00-9:00, Sat. 9:00-5:00 and Mon. 9:00-9:00 We're closed Tues.-Wed.-Thurs.-Sun. We rest a lot!!
